WINCHESTER RIFLES.

We publish elsewhere in our paper to-day, at the request of Messrs. Norton & Deuts, agents, a letter addressed to them by Capt. Wm. Edgar, who is well known over the frontier as one every way reliable. When he proves to his own satisfaction that the "Winchester" gun is the "best guns," there is little room for doubt on that question.—San Antonio, Texas, Daily Herald, August 30, 1868.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, August 22, 1868.

Messrs. NORTON & DEUTS, Agents, Winchester Arms Company:

Gentlemen:—In conformity with my promise, I am much pleased to make the following statement, viz:—The Winchester rifle which I purchased of you some three weeks past has exceeded my expectations. I gave it a fair and impartial trial, at the distance of 100 yards, choosing this distance for my test rather than a greater, knowing that accurate shooting at this distance would be attended with similar results at a greater distance. I fired five shots at a spot two inches in diameter, the first shot I placed on a line but three and a half inches above; second shot two and a half inches below on a line with the centre; third shot two inches to the left, parallel with the centre; fourth shot a little to the left, two and a half inches from the centre; fifth centre shot. While making this test I moved the front sight a little after each shot in order to regulate them, which argues rather against than in favor of the gun. I have used from time to time all of the latest and most approved guns, yet have found none to compare with the Winchester rifle, for force, accuracy, range in shooting, neatness, durability and simplicity of construction; yet it is not so liable to get out of order as the Spencer and a host of other arms now in use. The Spencer, when using it, I always place it to my shoulder with some fear of explosion, as several to my knowledge have occurred, causing severe and dangerous wounds, but I can see no possible chance for such accidents with the Winchester rifle or carbine. In fact or in short, the Winchester gun has no equal, at least none has never come under my observation, and I have met and used many kinds and make during twenty years residence in this State, and much of the time on the frontier. I have seen the Ballard, Spencer, Morse, Maynard, Colts, and the celebrated needle gun, but all of them sink into significance when compared with the Winchester. It is so simple in its construction that in five minutes you are as familiar with its mechanism as if you owned it for years. It is true, the Spencer is more in general use than any other gun. The reason of this is, that it was the first introduced; but the Winchester rifle is now here, and the Spencer's day has gone. It will soon find a place in the rubbish pile to make room for a better gun, the Winchester. The latter only needs to be known, and so soon as this is the case every man living in districts troubled with Indians will have one. They are bound to supercede all other guns; they are the only gun in use that will shoot eighteen shots without reloading; they are sighted for eight hundred yards, and will do good execution at that distance; they are well balanced, and in every way the best extant. Buy one, try it, and you will see for yourself that it is no humbug, but simply what it purports to be—the best.

Respectfully, WILLIAM EDGAR.

This testimony to the value and efficiency of the Winchester rifle is entirely worthy of public confidence, and have only to add that Messrs. Sorrel Brothers are the agents in Savannah.

[From the Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald.]

DO NOT PLANT TOO MUCH COTTON.

Let not our planters be too much elated by the result of their last year's efforts in planting cotton. The year before, for no cause that we can assign, cotton sold in this market as low as eight and nine cents per pound, while portions of last year's crop has been sold here in the past few days for twenty-six and twenty-seven cents per pound. The same causes which brought the crop of 1867 to nine cents a pound may produce a similar result with the crop of 1869, and planters should guard against a similar result. The sale of cotton, like that of gold and different kinds of bonds, are, to a too great extent, in the hands of capitalists, who, by a combination of action and capital, are able to either increase or decrease the selling prices. We remember distinctly that in January of 1867 cotton brought a remunerative price, and yet, at the close of the season, after the crops had been greatly shortened by the ravages of worms, and by the ruinous effects of a bad season, prices fell to such figures as brought almost total ruin upon the cotton producing section of the country. This increased offer for cotton early in 1867 was a plan adopted by capitalists interested in the purchase of cotton, to induce planters to plant largely in cotton, and we regret to see that the same influences are being brought to bear again this year. Let not, therefore, our planters be controlled in their planting operations the present year, by the price which cotton is at present commanding. From no known cause it has been steadily advancing for the last few weeks, and many sanguine persons elated at their success of the past year, and, in consideration of the present price of cotton, are liable to give too much attention to the planting of cotton. This would be ruinous. Raise first a sufficiency of everything else required for your support, and even experiment with other products than those at present commanding the attention of the planters of the South, such as the Ramie, Castor bean, Flax, &c., and then raise what cotton you can. And then, if prices should decline, the planting community will not be left in the same helpless condition it was early in 1868, after the ruinous cotton crop of 1867 was disposed of for the benefit of creditors.

The Lake City Leader says that James White, living at the mouth of Bagus creek, recently lost eight head of cattle by a singular disease, not occasioned, like the loss of either cattle in that county, by eating corn smut. The symptoms are a dry nose and a trembling of the flanks, followed by death in a few hours.

A letter writer in the South says you can not go on a cotton plantation in Alabama now without hearing the command: "Senator, start right smart to your cotton picking; Judge, you go and bring my horse round; or, Colonel, have a shoe put on that mule right away."

LIFE INSURANCE.

THE KNICKERBOCKER

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF NEW YORK.

Southern Branch, SAVANNAH, Ga.,

A. WILBUN, Manager.
R. D. ARNOLD, Consulting Physician.

THE ONLY BRANCH OFFICE OF LIFE INSURANCE IN THIS SECTION WHERE POLICIES ARE ISSUED AND LOSSES PAID.

ASSETS NEARLY

$5,000,000.

ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY

$3,000,000.

Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$73,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIable Company, and offers as great inducements to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time, on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY, Officers of first-class Steam or Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that occurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

Importance of Life Insurance.

Read another forcible illustration of how the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY pays its losses:—

"Received, at Raleigh, N. C., Jan 29th, 1869 of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Conn Mutual Life Ins Co., two thousand five hundred and forty-five dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 84,031, and dividend on the life of my late husband, ——, and I hereby surrender all my right, title and interest in the same to said Company.

(signed) ——, of Newbern, N. C"

We refrain from publishing the names of the parties, because we do not think it advisable to publish one's private business, but will state, although the party had not been insured quite five months, yet received a 53 per cent. dividend of 845 on the premium paid. The dividends of this Company have been larger than those of any other, averaging over 50 per cent. annually, from the beginning and the present dividend (Feb. 1st, 1869,) exceeds the average. On this twentieth annual dividend the Directors have, besides declaring a 45 per cent. dividend upon the premium paid, declared a per centage dividend on the surplus reserve arising from interest, which increases the policy holder's dividend annually, and on some policies pays over 70 per cent. this year. They have also adopted a reduced all-cash premium table with immediate annual dividends.

This company is purely mutual; there are no Stockholders to absorb its earnings. It offers abundant security in a large accumulated fund of over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS DOLLARS, derived alone from its business, and has $154 assets, securely invested for every $100 of its liabilities.—Its plans of business comprise all the desirable forms of insurance.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Polices at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL. D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

A FREE FIGHT!

VICTOR BARRINGER, FRIDAY JONES AND HENRY HUNTER, THE TWO LAST, COLORED FRIENDS OF VICTOR, ENTER THE RING!

VICTOR COUNTED OUT!

Everything Radical seems to be in a stew. In Congress, the most disgraceful scenes were witnessed in counting the Presidential vote. The Senate is rudely ordered out of the House. In Tennessee the members are fighting. In New Jersey a member of the Legislature is in the Penitentiary for bribery.

Our Capitol was, on Saturday, the scene of great and disgraceful disorder, in which every branch of the government participated,—white and colored, Executive, Legislative and Judicial.

As stated in our Saturday's issue, the papers of the Auditor were piled up in the passage of the Capitol, and the Auditor arrested. Instead of taking his prisoner to jail, the Marshal took him to the Governor, who cursed aloud. The most common oath to be found in the Governor's organ is about "Hell freezing over." We have it from one who heard him, that he did not use his famous quotation, but said: "Supreme Court or no Supreme Court, Chief Justice or no Chief Justice, d—d if my officials shall go to jail. If they do, it shall be over the dead bodies of my militia."

About 3 o'clock, Victor Barringer of the Code Commission, and Goldsboro secesh Convention, appeared with a paper before the Court, intended to purge Adams, the Auditor, of contempt. The Chief Justice asked if it was signed and sworn to by Adams? Upon being answered in the negative, the Chief Justice, said Mr. Adams would appear at 4 o'clock, and if he did not clearly and fully purge himself of contempt, he would go to jail.

Victor folded his papers, and left, we suppose, to get them in ship shape, by having them signed and sworn to.

Saturday's proceedings will show how carpet-bag Hayes wanted to clear the Capitol of the Court. James Harris, colored, who located the Penitentiary, offered a bill in the House to give the Auditor the North room now occupied by the Treasurer, and that the Auditor be relieved from all fines and penalties to which he may be subject for his neglect to vacate the room heretofore used by the Supreme Court. Mr. Seymour offered a resolution "instructing the Supreme Court to nol pros any action they had taken against the Auditor." Maj. Willie D. Jones, the arch rebel and Roanoke prisoner, was heard to say it was time for him to call out the Middle Division. Galloway, colored, but the best behaved and most liberal Radical of the Senate, thought the Attorney General might give up his room as he was seldom in it. As we write this hurriedly, for the press, at 12 o'clock, we learn the Senate has passed a resolution referring the whole matter to the Governor. In this, the House refused to concur.

Adams is not yet in jail; we learn, that the boys on the Bench, overruled the Chief Justice and Judge Read, and the dignity and authority of the Court was not maintained. We are sorry in our hearts, for a State that has such a Governor, such a Legislature, and such a Court.

The Attorney General is now able to appear in Court, but he bears upon his head and face the marks of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, inflicted in a ring sheep fight.

Friday Jones, and Henry Hunter, colored, at first seemed indignant, like the Governor and the carpet-baggers, but now they seem mortified that the Radical whites don't behave better.

Oh Reconstruction! Oh tempora; oh mores!

Secretary Fletcher, of Tennessee, publishes a card to-morrow denouncing the Knoxville Whig as a scurrilous and lying sheet, and utterly denying the malicious statements of that paper against himself.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Feb. 15, 1869.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill introduced by Mr Wynne, assigning the room now occupied by the Clerk of the Supreme Court, to the Auditor of the State, and instructing the keeper of the Capitol to furnish a suitable room for the Clerk of the Court. Motion to suspend the rul s prevailed.

Mr. Lassiter said he could not see the propriety of passing this bill. The Supreme Court cannot get along without a Clerk, and it is necessary that he should be convenient to the Court room, he thought this proposition looked like dividing the Supreme Court, he hoped the bill would not pass in its present form.

Mr. Sweet said if the bill passed it would only afford a temporary relief. He thought the question should be settled definitely, and offered a substitute, authorizing the Governor, with the advice of the Council of the State, to assign rooms to the Supreme Court, and to the Executive officers of the State.

Mr. Osborne said that this proposition would simply allow interested parties to select such rooms as they desire, and, if they choose to, they can turn the Supreme Court into the woods. Beside, Sir, this difficulty arises out of the management of the Auditor, himself. There are a number of rooms in the Capitol that have been tendered to him and which, in his opinion, are sufficiently large for the transaction of his business.—To take away the Clerk of the Court, Mr. President, would be perfectly ruinous to that body, he should be near the Court as it is actually necessary for them to have frequent intercourse, besides the Supreme Court by law is entitled to the rooms they now occupy. The proposition to transfer the Court to the Executive Mansion could only render a temporary relief. The Governor has a right to occupy that building when he may choose. Suppose the transfer should be made, and the Governor should be promoted, would not the Lieut. Governor who succeeds him have a perfect right to claim the building, certainly he would, and Sir, this whole matter can be settled at once by assigning some of the smaller rooms in the Capitol to the Auditor, and he hoped the Senate would see the propriety of such a course.

Mr. Welker said he did not like the proposition. There is a disposition to take the responsibility of this question out of the hands of the General Assembly, the proper body to settle it, and to place it upon the shoulders of the Governor. This question could be settled at once, if the Legislature would go to work in a proper manner.—There is a certain gentleman in this establishment that ought to be expelled at once, and his name is Demijohn. When that is done, the whole matter can be arranged at once. Besides, the Council of the State are personally interested, and, as a natural consequence, they would feel a delicacy in making the assignment. This body should arrange this matter themselves, and should do it at once.

Mr. Love said he agreed with the Senator from Guilford, that this question should be settled at once. The Attorney General's office is amply sufficient to accommodate the Auditor, and it has been tendered to him, but he refuses to go into it. Now, Sir, it is the duty of the General Assembly to say where he shall go, and he should be put there at once.

Mr. Smith said it had been charged, by two Senators, that the Auditor was responsible for this state of affairs, he did not think so, as he knew, of his own knowledge, that that officer had been going around, for two weeks, asking the members of the General Assembly to provide a room for him, as he had been ordered to vacate the one he then occupied.

Mr. Rospass: do you not know Mr. Smith, that a bill passed the House assigning to the use of the Auditor the room now occupied by the Superintendent of Public Works and that he (the Auditor) came into this Hall and urged Senators to vote down the proposition.

Mr. Smith said he may have heard something of it, but he did not know that it influenced Senators to vote against the proposition as many of them were of the opinion that the room was not large enough.

Mr. Love.—Do you not know, Mr. Smith, the fact that the Attorney General offered to tender his room to the Auditor, and that he refused to accept it.

Mr. Smith said he had heard it, and it was because the office was not sufficiently large to transact his business that he declined the offer. He hoped the proposition of Mr. Sweet would be adopted.

Mr. Cook moved to amend by striking out Governor and Council, and insert a Joint Committee composed of three on the part of both Houses, but

Mr. Lassiter moved to amend by assigning the room adjoining the Secretary of State to the Auditor.

Mr. Hayes opposed the amendment, for the reason that the Secretary of State has no more room than is necessary. He was in favor of the substitute offered by Mr. Sweet, or would vote for a proposition to remove the Judicial department to the Executive Mansion, or out of the Capitol. He was opposed to the Judicial department having the power to remove Executive officers out of the Capitol. He hoped the substitute would be adopted, and that the Supreme Court would be removed to the Executive Mansion.

Mr. Lassiter's amendment was lost.

YEAS.—Messrs. Beaman, Eaves, Forkner, Graham, Hyman, colored, Lassiter, Love, Moore, of Yancey, Richardson and Wilson—10.

Mr. Love offered a substitute assigning to the Auditor, the rooms now occupied by the Attorney General and that occupied by the Superintendent of Public Works.

Mr. Welker said he would not vote now for any proposition to place the Auditor off in a corner of the Capitol. He had been treated shamefully, having been turned out of a room arbitrarily, in which he had been placed by an act of this General Assembly. It was an insult to the State and to the General Assembly. He would vote for no proposition, except one to give him an office suitable to his station as a high officer of the government, and he thought the General Assembly ought to be ashamed of themselves for delaying this matter so long.

Mr. Love's amendment was voted down. AYES.—Messrs. Beasly, Boyd, Beeman, Brogden, Eaves, Epps, (colored,) Forkner, Graham, Lassiter, Love, Mason, Moore, of Yancey, Osborne, Robbins, Scott, Shoffner, White and Wilson—14. Nays 19.

Mr. Robbins offered to amend the substitute by striking out Council, and leave the whole matter in the hands of the Governor, which was adopted, and the substitute, as amended, passed its several readings, under a suspension of the rules.

On motion of Mr. Sweet, the rules were suspended, and the bill was sent to the House.

Bill to make certain amendments to the Code of Civil Procedure.

[REPORT CONCLUDED TO-MORROW.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, Feb. 15, 1869.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Ames, Davidson, Ragland, Sweat, colored, and Price, colored.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. French: A resolution amending the rules so as to limit speeches to five minutes.

Mr. French moved to suspend the rules and adopt. Lost.

Mr. Seymour from the Committee on Judiciary, reported favorably upon the bill in relation to Landlords and Tenants, with amendments, and unfavorably upon the resolution instructing the Supreme Court to nol pros any action against the Auditor as the Committee thought it amounted to an unwarranted and unconstitutional interference with the perogatives of Courts. The bill and resolution were placed upon the Calendar.

The morning hour having expired on motion of Mr. French, the rules were suspended and his resolution limiting speeches to five minutes was taken up and after a debate which lasted for some two hours Messrs. Harris, of Wake, colored, Leary, colored, and Hayes, colored, opposed the resolution in the shape offered, as it would have a tendency to choke off discussion upon the school bill shortly to come up.

Messrs. French, Estes, Sinclair and others favored it, as they thought this unlimited debate would keep the Legislature in session too long.

Messrs. Stilley and Seymour for various reasons opposed the resolution in the shape offered, &c.

The resolution was finally adopted, allowing members to speak once for an half an hour upon the main question and upon public bills.

On motion the Revenue bill was made special order for half past 12 o'clock this morning.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting a bill assigning rooms in the Capitol and Executive Mansion to the Supreme Court and State Executive officers, and asks concurrence of the House. [This bill empowers the Governor to assign the rooms in the Capitol and Executive Mansion to the Supreme Court and the State Executive officers, and repeal all acts inconsistent with this bill.]

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules were suspended, and the bill was as once considered.

Mr. Seymour moved to strike out the words "the Supreme Court." He said the Supreme Court was a co-ordinate branch of the government and equal in dignity with the Executive, and the Legislature, but passing the bill in its present shape would bring the Court into a state of dependence upon the Executive. This was a movement designed as a punishment of the Supreme Court for their Judicial action a day or two ago, in regard to the ejectment of the Auditor.

Mr. Sinclair said while all should have a proper regard for the dignity of the Supreme Court, yet, they should also, cherish some respect for the Executive. The dignity of the people and of this Legislature demanded that they should take hold of the matter. The matter in regard to these rooms had been before this Assembly often enough, and as there was a great difference of opinion, he thought the whole matter should be left with the Governor. He was opposed to any exception being made in the bill in favor of the Supreme Court, &c. During his remarks he (Sinclair) stated that a day or so previous to the ejectment that the Governor had sent the keeper of the Capitol to the Court offering to remove the Auditor, but the Court had responded that there was no occasion to be in a hurry, yet but a short time elapsed before the Court in a fit of the colic, ordered the Auditor to jail, and piled up his papers in the rotunda.

Mr. Malone called him to order, as the gentleman had no right to use such disrespectful language of the Court.

The Chair sustained Mr. Malone.

[Here a discussion arose whether or not Mr. Sinclair had a right to proceed after being called to order for disrespectful language. After some debate, Mr. S. was allowed, on motion, to proceed, for five minutes.]

Mr. Sinclair resumed his remarks. He disclaimed any intention of being disrespectful to the Supreme Court, and continued for the rest of time allowed, in debating the merits of the bill.

Mr. Seymour said, while we have any confidence in the Governor, we were opposed to giving him, at this time, the power asked for, as it would impose upon the Supreme Court as a co-ordinate branch of the State Government—equal in dignity as such to the General Assembly, and therefore they had no right to impose a rebuke, by implication, in passing such a bill upon that Court, for any Judicial action.

Mr. Estes next occupied the floor in defence of the bill, and in opposition to Mr. Seymour's amendment.

Mr. Downing said he hoped the amendment would prevail. As the bill read now, it certainly implied a censure. A resolution, giving the Auditor a room, passed this House some time ago, but the Senate had, for some reason, refused to concur. He thought if Mr. Seymour's amendment was adopted all difficulty would be done away with.

Mr. Vest favored the bill as it came from the Senate.

Mr. Barnett said that a strange change had come over "the spirit of the dreams," of the gentleman from Robeson, (Sinclair.) Last Summer the gentleman from Robeson, when the Police bill was discussed, expressed anything but a confidence of the Governor in regard to that matter. He (Barnett) thought he "smelt a rat."

Mr. Ingram wished to know whether or not this was intended as war upon the Supreme Court; he thought it so, and he was of the opinion that the people would, also, so construe it.

Mr. Pou favored the amendment.

J. S. Leary, colored, said that as a member of the House and as a North Carolinian he would go for maintaining the authority and dignity of the Supreme Court. He also thought that the passage of the bill as it came from the Senate would imply a censure upon the Court, therefore he would vote for the amendment.

Mr. Pou said:

It is said that the amendment, striking out the words "Supreme Court," will not settle the difficulty.

I am in favor of the amendment, because I believe it is the only way to settle the difficulty. It is admitted that the Auditor has now no office; that his papers are piled in the Rotunda. As soon as we arrange to provide him an office, the difficulty will be at end. The bill, as amended, allows the Governor to arrange the rooms of the Capitol, (except the Supreme Court Rooms,) and the rooms of the Executive Mansion, so as to give the Auditor a room.

Some members of this House wish to give the Governor the power to remove the Supreme Court from their legally appointed place of holding their sessions. I think such an act would give rise to much greater difficulty than has hereto ore arisen. Therefore, some of us propose to except from the Governor's discretion the place of sitting of the Supreme Court.

Let us leave each one of the co-ordinate branches of the State Government in its legally appointed place. The Governor in his rooms, the Supreme Court in theirs, and the Legislature in theirs.

The question recurring upon the amendment it was adopted by the following ballot:

AYES.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Bivens Boddie, Carson, Carey, Cawthorn, Clayton, of Transylvania, Davis, Davidson, Downing, Durham, Farrow, Ferebee, Gibson, Green, Harris, of Franklin, Hawkins, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodgin, Humphries, Hudgings, Ingram, Jarvis, Justus, of Henderson, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Leary, Long, of Richmond, Malone, Matheson, McCanless, Mendenhall, Moore, Nicholson, Painter, Parker, Pou, Proffitt, Robinson, Reynolds, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Snipes, Stanton, Stilley, Thompson, Vestal, Waldrop, Welch, White, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Sampson.—51.

NAYS.—Messrs. Blair, Dixon, Estes, Forkner, French, Gahagan, Gilbert, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, Horney, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Mayo, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Price, Proctor, Rentrow, Robbins, Sinclair, Simonds, Stevens, Sykes, Vest, Wilkie, Wilson, Wiswall.—32

Mr. Argo offered the following proviso to the first section:

Provided, That this act shall not be so construed as to empower the Governor to interfere with the assignment made heretofore of rooms to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Argo's amendment was adopted by the following ballot:

AYES.—Argo, Armstrong, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Barnes, Boddie, Carson, Carey, Cawthorn, Clayton, of Transylvania, Davis, Downing, Durham, Farrow, Ferebee, Forkner, Gibson, Green, Harris, of Franklin, Hawkins, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodgin, Humphries, Hudgings, Ingram, Jarvis, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Davie, Leary, Long, of Richmond, Malone, Matheson, McCanless, Mendenhall, Moore, Nicholson, Painter, Parker, Pou, Price, Proffitt, Robinson, Reynolds, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Snipes, Stanton, Stilley, Sykes, Thompson, Vestal, White, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, and Williams, of Sampson—63.

NAYS—Blair, Dixon, Estes, French, Gahagan, Gilbert, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, Horney, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Mayo, Morrill, Morriss, Pearson, Proctor, Rentrow, Robbins, Sinclair, Simonds, Stevens, Vest, Wilkie and Wilson.—26.

Another very long debate upon a motion made by some opponent to the bill as amended to postpone the further consideration of the matter until to-morrow.

The bill as amended then passed is several readings and ordered to be sent to the Senate for concurrence.

A message was received from the Senate, concurring in the House proposition for a Committee on Conference in regard to State lines, and naming Messrs. Sweet, Osborne and Graham, as the Senate branch of said Committee.

The Revenue bill was then taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Estes, was made the special order for 7½ o'clock this evening.

On motion, the House then adjourned to 7½ o'clock this evening.

[NOTE.—In Saturday's proceedings, Mr. Seymour was wrongly reported as having introduced the resolution instructing the Supreme Court to nol pros any action against the Auditor. It was submitted by the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.]

A SMALL POX REMEDY.—A correspondent of the Stockton (Cal.) Herald writes as follows:

I herewith append a recipe, which has been used to my knowledge in hundreds of cases. It will prevent or cure the small pox though the pittings are filling. When Jenner discovered cow pox in England, the world of science hurled an avalanche of fame upon his head, but when the most scientific school of medicine in the world—that of Paris—published this recipe as a panacea for small pox, it passed unheeded. It is as unfailing as fate, and conquers in every instance. It is harmless when taken by a well person. It will also cure scarlet fever. Here is the recipe as I have used it, and cured my children of scarlet fever; here it is as I have used it to cure the small pox; when learned physicians said the patient must die, it cured: Sulphate of zinc, one grain; toxglove, (digitalis,) one grain; half a teaspoonful of sugar; mix with two tablespoonfuls of water. When thoroughly mixed, add four ounces of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Either disease will disappear in twelve hours. For a child, smaller doses, according to age. If counties would compel their physicians to use this, there would be no need of pesthouses. If you value advice and experience, use this for that terrible disease.

WADESBORO'.—We predict for this town a bright future. Located in a rich and populous section, and at a distance from any other place of much commercial importance, it cannot fail to command a large trade; and when the W., C. & R. Railroad reaches this point, it will, at once, become the Depot of a vast section. Let her people take heart, and go vigorously to work—to build up, improve and beautify the town. Assuredly the day of her redemption is near.—Wadesboro' Argus.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, when formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the aromatic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diuretic stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

Those satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the beverage, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label on cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have prevented the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been abused; the independent wealth his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps acquired from the medical profession has been crushed by scandalous humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements pirated, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and then made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested in the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Rotterdam, Holland, is distilled from a variety of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In connexion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

Another Muss in the Capitol!

FIGHT IN THE ROOM OF THE ENGROSSING CLERK—O'HARA AND MILLER, ALIAS SULLIVAN AND HYER, MEASURE ARMS, AND DISTURB THE POETIC READING CLERK, WHO RUSHES TO THE ROOM—SUCCEEDS IN RESTORING QUIET—COMBAT RENEWED AFTER THE HOUSE ADJOURNED—FRENCH AND DIXON, MEN OF MUSCLE, SUCCEED IN PARTING THE BELLIGERENTS.

During the debate in the House of Representatives, on yesterday, on the resolution assigning rooms to State officers, O'Hara, colored, Engrossing Clerk, and Miller, colored, one of the Doorkeepers, engaged in a fisticuff in the room of the Engrossing Clerk, which so disturbed the Reading Clerk, Mr. Boner, that he rushed to the scene of action, and, by dint of persuasion, succeeded in bringing about an armistice between the belligerents. After the House adjourned, O'Hara and Miller renewed the fight in the Hall, and, but for the timely interference of Mr. French, of New Hanover, and Dixon, of Greene, men of size and muscle, who pulled the chickens apart, it is impossible to say which would have won the day.

OUR neighbors over in Virginia seem to be greatly exercised about the new movement, and the position of Gen. Lee on the subject. It is a matter of small moment how Gen. L. stands. It is very likely that "uncle Robert" would rather his name should be kept out of the contest, as it appears he has given no opinion, neither has he authorized any one to "opinionate" for him. The question is a very plain one, and we are at a loss to tell why this difference of opinion among Virginians. We once had an honest, upright and popular Circuit Judge in our State, who always closed his charge to the jury something after this wise: "Gentlemen of the Jury, I have summed up the testimony and explained the law. Thar are two sides to the question—here's one and thar's the other—take the case."

Is Mr. Hunnicut dead?—Richmond Examiner.

We understand Hunnicut will issue his paper from Greenville, Pitt County, in this State, at an early day. Tar River is in danger of being set on fire, and Eastern North Carolina is to be scourged, with a pestilence, if not a famine.

P. S. Rumor says Hunnicut's paper is to be the organ of Gen. Byron Laflin.

FROM THE WEST—THE KANSAS LEGISLATURE—FEMALE SUFFRAGE IN NEBRASKA—VIOLATION OF TREATY BY INDIANS.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 11, 1869.

Both Houses of the Kansas Legislature have adopted a memorial to Congress to aid the Central branch of the Pacific Railroad, the St. Joseph and Denver Road, and the Eastern Division of the Union Pacific Railroad; and also a memorial to Congress to tax lands held by Indians under patents of the special commission.

The committee of the Nebraska Legislature, having the matter in charge, reported back a memorial and joint resolution, praying for female suffrage, and recommends its passage.

Indians have again made their appearance on the south side of the Platte, near McPherson.

Two companies of troops were sent from Omaha last night.

There are anticipations of serious disturbances, as their appearance in that neighborhood, in violation of treaty, indicates mischief.

JUDGE RODMAN.

SIR: In acquittal of my engagement and promise made last week, I now proceed to answer the latter portion of your article "Stop Thief," which the Editor of the Standard falsely claimed and published to the world as his.

That you may have no reason to complain of misrepresentation, I publish the latter portion of your article, as I find it in the Standard. It reads thus:

The stale and abominable assertion against Governor Holden has been refuted a thousand times. This gentleman's offence, and one for which he can never be forgiven, has been his unfaltering support of the government, and his keen and powerful castigation of the rebel leaders throughout the State. Gov. Holden's devotion to the Union, and his gallant support of the reconstruction measures, are known and appreciated to the remotest corners of the great republic. Josiah Turner, and his co conspirators, might as well try to stop the sun, in his circuit around the globe, as to imagaine that Holden's fame will suffer, in the estimation of loyal men, by the contemptuous attacks of the Sentinel. But with him all means justify the end. The evident object of Turner, and his accomplices, is to crush out the spirit of enterprise from the State, and the only weapons they can use are scandalous attacks on the character of patriotic and accomplished gentlemen.—These they have used as unmercifully as the blood-hound who tracks his victim.

I think Judge, I now understand, both you and Holden, whom you have volunteered to defend. I think the people know and understand you both; if they do not, God help them—their ignorance is incurable.

The disposition of a few old Whigs in the State to follow Holden, in his false, wicked and hypocritical teachings, is inexcusable. They did not believe him, when he taught secession and war. Why should they now believe him in his jesuitical teachings to the black rabble in their dangerous secret midnight associations.

Let me ask you, what "stale and abominable assertions against Governor Holden have been refuted a thousand times," as you say? Charlotte Cordey was called the angel of assassination. I have called Holden the morning star of Lincoln's assassination. Who has "refuted," who can refute the assertion? Look in the State Library to the files of the Standard, and in the issue of the 5th of June, 1861, you will see it asked, "Who will plot for the head of Abe Lincoln?"

I have asserted, that he called Lincoln "tyrant, despot and fool." Is this one of the "abominable assertions that has been refuted a thousand times?" He signed the ordinance of secession. Has this, too, been "refuted?" Who ever attempted to deny or refute any one charge ever brought against Governor Holden, except his son, Joseph, when editing the Standard, he declared every man a liar and a coward, who called the "beloved Governor," his father, a secessionist? This is the only attempt at refuting the assertions made against the Governor, until you came with your weak refutation in your article, "stop thief." You don't attempt to refute or deny, but content your self with saying, "the stale and abominable assertions against the Governor have been refuted a thousand times." Don't be so extravagant—name one time, one occasion, when any one charge against him was ever refuted. I have had the good fortune to differ with you and Holden upon all the great questions which have divided the people in our time. It is no small consolation to me to know, that I differ with you now. With the great body of the virtuous and intelligent people of the State, I am heartily and perfectly united. We are as heartily agreed in our detestation of your new John Brown principles, as we were in your old principles of secession. You know, I often expressed my unqualified disapprobation of every step you took into the bloody path of peaceable secession. I take it, like Holden, you feel neither grief nor shame at the miserable consequences which befall the people by following your advice. If you and Holden felt as you should, you would never venture again to offer the people your opinions upon great and grave political questions. You may rest assured of one thing, so long as the people are well informed, uncorrupt, and undefiled, they will spurn the political teachings of Holden and Rodman as they would pestilence and famine. At least this is the honest conviction of JOSIAH TURNER Jr.

Society is tranquil, the laws are everywhere enforced.—W. W. HOLDEN.

Notwithstanding our "beloved" Governor has so written to the Hon. R. W. Best, he has telegraphed our Senators in Congress to oppose any move by which the Federal garrisons in North Carolina may be reduced. And why? If "society is tranquil," and "the laws everywhere enforced," what need have we for negro soldiers with their bristling bayonets? Why keep the people of Goldsboro' in constant dread of an outbreak? That community, according to the leading paper of the place, the Messenger, are insulted and outraged by disorderly, drunken negro soldiers. Why, and what the necessity, for sending "more troops" to Wilmington, if "society" down there, "is tranquil?" Who can understand you? What is your meaning? And you commit yourself in favor of immigration—for what? We thought you were the friend of the negro, don't you know for every immigrant to our State, two of the number of your particular friends are thrown out of employment? Is it possible, dearly "beloved," that you are preparing to change your tactics thus early? Do you see in the distance, clearly, "a cloud no larger than a man's hand?"

CAPT. RANKIN.—It is with great gratification that we are enabled to announce that the fractures in the limb of this gentleman have been successfully set. The operation was performed yesterday about noon by Dr. W. G. Thomas, the attending physician, assisted by Drs. Anderson and Wood.—Chloroform being administered, Capt. Rankin was insensible to all pain. The effects of the chloroform did not wear off until evening came on, and then it was he first began to suffer, but not to the extent that was anticipated. His condition on the whole, after this critical operation, is hopeful. The bones of his leg are nicely set and the limb placed in good position.—Wil. Journal.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Much has been said and written on the subject of internal improvement. While I am in favor of improving the condition of our State morally, pecuniarily and intellectually, I am utterly opposed to reckless appropriations, indication of ruin and disgrace. The many opinions, pretexts and reasonings set forth, by seemingly intelligent minds reveal much of corruption, madness and folly. That any sane mind should suppose the credit of a State, or individual, can be sustained by making pledges without the ability or inclination to meet them is truly surprising. The honest voters of our State once thought differently. They thought it dishonest and impolitic to make contracts, State or individual, without any intention of paying them. That when their representatives made sacred pledges the people were acting through them; and that to sustain those pledges was to sustain the honor and reputation of a high minded constituency. That liberal appropriations for laudable and beneficial objects were commendable and should be met in a spirit of becoming dignity and promptness. That none but sacrilegious hands would desecrate the sacred temple of liberty, and basely obscure the culminating brightness of our glorious old State, and hand her down to posterity as "unwise in her glory and base in her fall."

Said a strong advocate for a certain object not long since, "is it not our policy to urge and accept a liberal appropriation, as it would be a convenience and benefit to us!" If we have arrived at that stage of corruption in our States history that sectional motives and feelings prompt to log-rolling schemes of ruinous extravagance, well may contemplating men tremble for the honor and safety of the old North State.

Our policy to aid in driving an already over burdened people to madness and folly! To urge our State to unfathomable depths of infamy and accumulating guilt, for a supposed sectional benefit! What! "our policy" to cut loose the noble old ship of State from her mooring, to be driven into the fearful, maelstrom of sole reputation, that we may cling to some sectional plank in the darkness and confusion of the night? I am utterly opposed to the "one policy" idea. It is unbecoming an enlightened people, whose love of State ought to prompt them to a vigilant upholding of state credit and honor. There is just about as much sound sense in the idea, as in the idea of sticking a match to a powder magazine, destroying the strength and symmetry of the factory, that the insane operative that applied it, might cling to some isolated plank, amid the groans and mangled forms of his less fortunate comrades. Would an anatomist be believed if he were to advance the startling idea that each limb would receive additional strength by reducing the body to insufferable rotteness?

As I said in the outset, I am in favor of internally improving the condition of our state. I am in favor of internally improving her condition by devising some way of preventing unprincipled and irresponsible men from imposing on others burdens too heavy to be borne—burdens they are too low to "touch with their little finger."—I think North Carolina might be internally improved by improving the internal motives and feelings of all who would sink her credit at home and abroad, to carry out "our policy" of sectional convenience. I think his condition might be internally improved by doing something to restore and sustain public and private confidence, instead of nurturing in her midst feelings of reputation, like a deadly upas, poisoning all her avenues of social, civil and political existence. So soon after our unsuccessful effort at dismemberment from the Union, it looks suicidal in us to heap much more responsibility on an almost despairing people, however magnanimous, with diminished means of meeting their obligations.

With wise legislators, representing a wise and prudent constituency, North Carolina, (though now partially shorn of her strength) may yet "arise and shine," nobly sustaining her honor and credit. But with reckless spirits at the helm, urged by a people eager for "our policy" of sectional self aggrandizement, at the expense of the public welfare, her credit and honor will go down in accumulating darkness, casting a "baleful hue over the far distant scenery of her future." More anon.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb 15 P. M.

Gen Breckenridge leaves Baltimore for Kentucky, in ten days. His health is good.

The Supreme Court, in the case involving the validity of gold contracts, decides, in effect, that the "Acts" making gold and silver legal money, have never been repealed; that we have two kinds of legal tender money, gold and silver, and paper, and that a contract made for the payment of either is valid and binding, and can be enforced.

The constitutionality of the legal tender Act is not involved in this question.

The following is General Grant's acceptance of the Presidency, which was sent to Congress today:

"Gentlemen. Please notify the two Houses of Congress of my acceptance of the important trust which you have just notified me of,—my election as President of the United States,—and say to them, that it will be my endeavor that they and those who elected me, have no reason to regret their action."

In the Supreme Court in the prohibition writ against Judge Underwood, the Chief Justice said that he had signified his dissent from Underwood's opinion expressed in favor of allowance of writs of habeas corpus, complained of in the petition.

The difference of opinion will be certified to at this Court at an early day, and the next Friday the Court will hear argument on the case of Jeter Phillips—meantime the opinion of the Court on the writ of prohibition will be withheld.

The Court decides that the Confederate steamer Georgia, captured while sailing from Liverpool, was a legal prize of war.

Both Houses are in session.

The Senate is considering the finance bill.

The House is considering the tax bill.

Schenck in a colloquy, to-day, expressed the hope of passing the tax bill this session.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb 15, P. M.

HOUSE.—Under the regular call, the following bills came up: Increasing the pay of Army officers; Equalizing the pay for males and females employed in Executive offices; Directing the Secretary of the Treasury to sell thirty millions surplus gold; Granting a loan of five millions to the New Orleans and Selma Railroad and Immigration Association.

A joint resolution passed, authorizing the North Pacific Railroad, from Lake Superior to Puget Sound, to mortgage its Road and Telegraph to raise funds for its completion.

Evening sessions, after to-morrow, have been set apart to consider the action of appropriations.

A motion to discharge recusant witness failed again by a vote of 103 to 38.

A bill relieving certain political disabilities heretofore reported from the Reconstruction Committee was taken up.

It is stated that during the debate no removals will be considered by the Committee unless application is made in writing. Without action the House adjourned.

SENATE.—Morton introduced a joint resolution requiring the parties desiring relief from disabilities to apply in writing over their own signature—detailing grounds upon which relief was asked.

A bill paying Federal officers in the Southern States who were unable to take the required oath elicited a long debate. No action.

The Indian appropriation bill was resumed and the Senate took a recess.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

BRANCH OFFICE:

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING,

PHILADELPHIA,

where the general business of the Company is transacted, and to which all general correspondence should be addressed.

OFFICERS.

CLARENCE H CLARK, President.
JAY COOKE, Chairman Finance and Executive Committee.
HENRY D. COOKE, Vice President.
EMERSON W. PEET, Secretary and Actuary.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its large capital, low rates of Premium, and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-holder.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policyholder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an ANNUAL INCOME equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The organization of this Company on the LOW RATE, CASH PLAN, with new features and unequaled security, has evoked the most remarkable opposition from other and rival Companies. By means, fair and unfair, they have sought to injure the new system, and have attacked it with a degree of virulence unknown in the history of Life Insurance.

Not satisfied with the immense sums of money paid Insurance and other journals, to try and check the rapid progress of the National, an unsuccessful motion was made in Congress to repeal the charter, all of which but accelerated its speed for since then the largest policies issued has been to members of Congress, whose attention has been thus attracted to its unsurpassed advantages. In the face of this opposition, the work of the Company has gone steadily forward, and it is with no little satisfaction that the GENERAL AGENTS are able to state that the business to date is far in advance of anything hitherto accomplished.

In Six Months 3,000 Policies have Been Issued.

INSURING, IN ROUND NUMBERS,

$10,000,000.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives, or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Co.

THIS HOME COMPANY, CHARTERED BY the Legislature of North Carolina, insures property against loss or damage by

FIRE, LIGHTNING, OR TORNADO,

and does business on the Mutual and Joint Stock plans.

The character of those who control the affairs of the Company is a sufficient guarantee that it is, what it professes to be, a HOME ENTERPRIZE, offering ample and liberal protection against loss by fire, &c., on the most easy and liberal terms to insurers.

The TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS in N. C. Bonds, required by the Charter to be deposited with the Public Treasurer, have promptly been so deposited and the Treasurer's receipt therefor obtained.

Policies are issued for a term not to exceed five years.

No other Company offers greater inducements to Insurers.

Now is the time for all who feel any interest in a HOME INSTITUTION to come forward and encourage this Company—receiving, as they will, reciprocal benefit in the enhancement of value and protection of their property.

For further particulars, address the Secretary, or consult General or Local Agents, who will, at due time, be announced.

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and south, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles; is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by
